reviewing drafts. The task is expected to be completed September/October 2020, so if you are willing to support the initiative, or have any suggestions, please email Patrick Courtney, the analytical laboratory robotics lead at euRobotics.

Have your say on Call 2020

CHIST-ERA is pathfinder programme for European coordinated research on future and emerging information and communication technologies. Between 29 Sep – 1 Oct, CHIST-ERA will host Conference 2020 – an event that will give delegates the chance to help shape the text of the official Call 2020 and Call Open Science announcements. For more details, see the Conference 2020 website.
