LANCASTER UNIVERSITY Professional, Statutory and Regulatory Bodies Guidance on policy and procedures

PSRB accreditation frew programmes must be reported on by the department in the University PSRB report for the year (see 3.10 below). In addition, the PSRB's accreditation report must be forwarded to the faculty for consideration at the next meeting of the faculty teaching committee(s). The faculty must forward the PSRB report to CAQS

3.2 STUDENT ASSESSMENT

Any FSRB equirements for the assessment fostudents which are additional to or different from the University's standard assessment egulations musbe detailed in the programme proposal and approved as part of this process. Where it has a greed they can differ, a record of this is nade in the respective appendices the Undergraduate Assessment Regulations to which the University Process are the Undergraduate Assessment Regulations to which the University Process are the University Process and Process and Process are the University Process and Process and Process are the University Process and Process and Process are the University Process and Process and Process are the University Process are the University Process are the University Process and Process are the University Process and Process are the University Process are the Univ

(d) for those departments which have undergone an accreditation or correction visit over the course of the yearist the date of the next visit.

6. RECORDS

The relevant BRBs indicated agains the programme 6 study in the University's student information system at the point of University approval of the programme and t p